

BIO

Justin Whiteside is the Assistant Town Administrator for the Town of Ocean Isle Beach. He previously served as the Town's floodplain administrator and held a Certified Floodplain Manager certification. He is a graduate of Appalachian State University and has been employed by the Town in various positions since 2003. He also currently serves as the Applicant's Agent for NC Emergency Management and FEMA to handle all reimbursement activities following federally declared disasters.